Response to Amendment

The examiner acknowledges canceled claims 6–9, and new claims 10–19.

Allowable Subject Matter

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Regarding claims 10–12 and 14–19, the prior arts fail to teach or fairly suggest an operation mode selection mechanism able to select one of at least three operation modes; the three modes comprising:

a first operation mode wherein the operation enabling mechanism sets the enabled switch state and the switch is operated through the insertion of the key without the presence of the ID device;

a second operation mode wherein the operation enabling mechanism sets the enabled switch state after the coincidence determination mechanism indicates the equivalence of the identifying data of the present ID device and the stored identifying data in the ID storage mechanism, wherein the switch can be actuated with and without the insertion of the mechanical key;

a third operation mode wherein the operation enabling mechanism sets the enabled switch state after the coincidence determination mechanism indicates the equivalence of the identifying data of the ID device and the stored identifying data in the ID storage mechanism; a third mode time period is determined;

wherein during the third mode time period, the mechanical key inserted into the switch without the presence of the ID device present is sufficient to operate the switch state; and wherein after the third mode time period, the operation enabling mechanism sets the disabled switch state.

Regarding claim 13, the prior arts fail to teach or fairly suggest the operation enabling mechanism sets the switch to the enabled switch state after the coincidence determination mechanism indicates the equivalence of two or more sets of identifying data of corresponding ID devices to two or more sets of stored identifying data in the ID storage mechanism, and the mechanical key is inserted in the switch.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
